	DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND IMPARTIALITY EUROSERT OÜ	1 of 1
		Version 1
Developed by: Ivan Korsak		Approved by: Sergei Boaga
Date: 28.04.2025.		Date: 28.04.2025.

1. Independence

EUROSERT OÜ maintains its independence from any organisations that could influence its certification decisions. The body does not design, manufacture, market, install or maintain the certified products, and does not offer consultancy on these matters.

The organisation is managerially and legally independent of clients, consultants and any interested parties whose interests could conflict with the objectivity of certification.

2. Impartiality

EUROSERT OÜ undertakes to:

- Carry out all certification activities honestly, objectively and impartially;
- Identify, analyse and manage risks to impartiality at all stages of the certification process;
- Exclude any pressure, whether commercial, financial or otherwise, that could affect the objectivity of decisions;
- Ensure that all employees, experts, auditors and committee members sign an appropriate declaration of impartiality and confidentiality.

3. Conflict of interest

All employees and contracted persons shall:

- Immediately inform the management of any known or potential conflicts of interest;
- Not participate in the certification of objects in whose design or consultancy they were previously involved.

4. Responsibility

The management of EUROSERT OÜ bears full responsibility for ensuring independence and impartiality within the certification system. Regular risk analysis, process audits and the involvement of the Impartiality Committee serve as additional control measures.
